

Main Street Foresthill 1858. Forest House on corner. When Foresthill on the hill was built, it was determined this street should equal Market Street in San Francisco.

THE FOREST HOUSE, FORESTHILL

C4
Blue

Original Forest House in 1858
It was determined this street should equal Market Street in San Francisco in width

C8
Blue

Forest House, Forest Hill, CA
1910

From a plate glass negative
taken by Al Lochter

2D
Gold

House occupied by Senator Leland Stanford while a resident of Michigan Bluff, CA. He was a merchant in that place in the 1850's.

Reading from right to left

Vas. Bickford of Michigan Bluff

Lee Van Eman of Michigan Bluff

W.L. Rember of Foresthill

V.L. Welker of Yankee Jims

members of Michigan Bluff
Lodge I. O. O. F.

8D
Gold

Photo taken by Dr. J. A. Holmes of U.S.
Geological Survey, Washington D.C. Aug.
1907:

On right w/ hat on H.L. Van Eran (Postmaster) and Noah Hough (old pioneer of Michigan<sup>an</sup> Bluff, CA

C6
Blue

Forest House, Forest Hill, CA
R. Burry, Proprietor

A8
Blue

Main Street, Forest Hill.
Nov. 26, 1908

BB
Blue

Main Street, Forest Hill.
Note fire troughs, stationed every 50' often down center
of street

F12
Blue

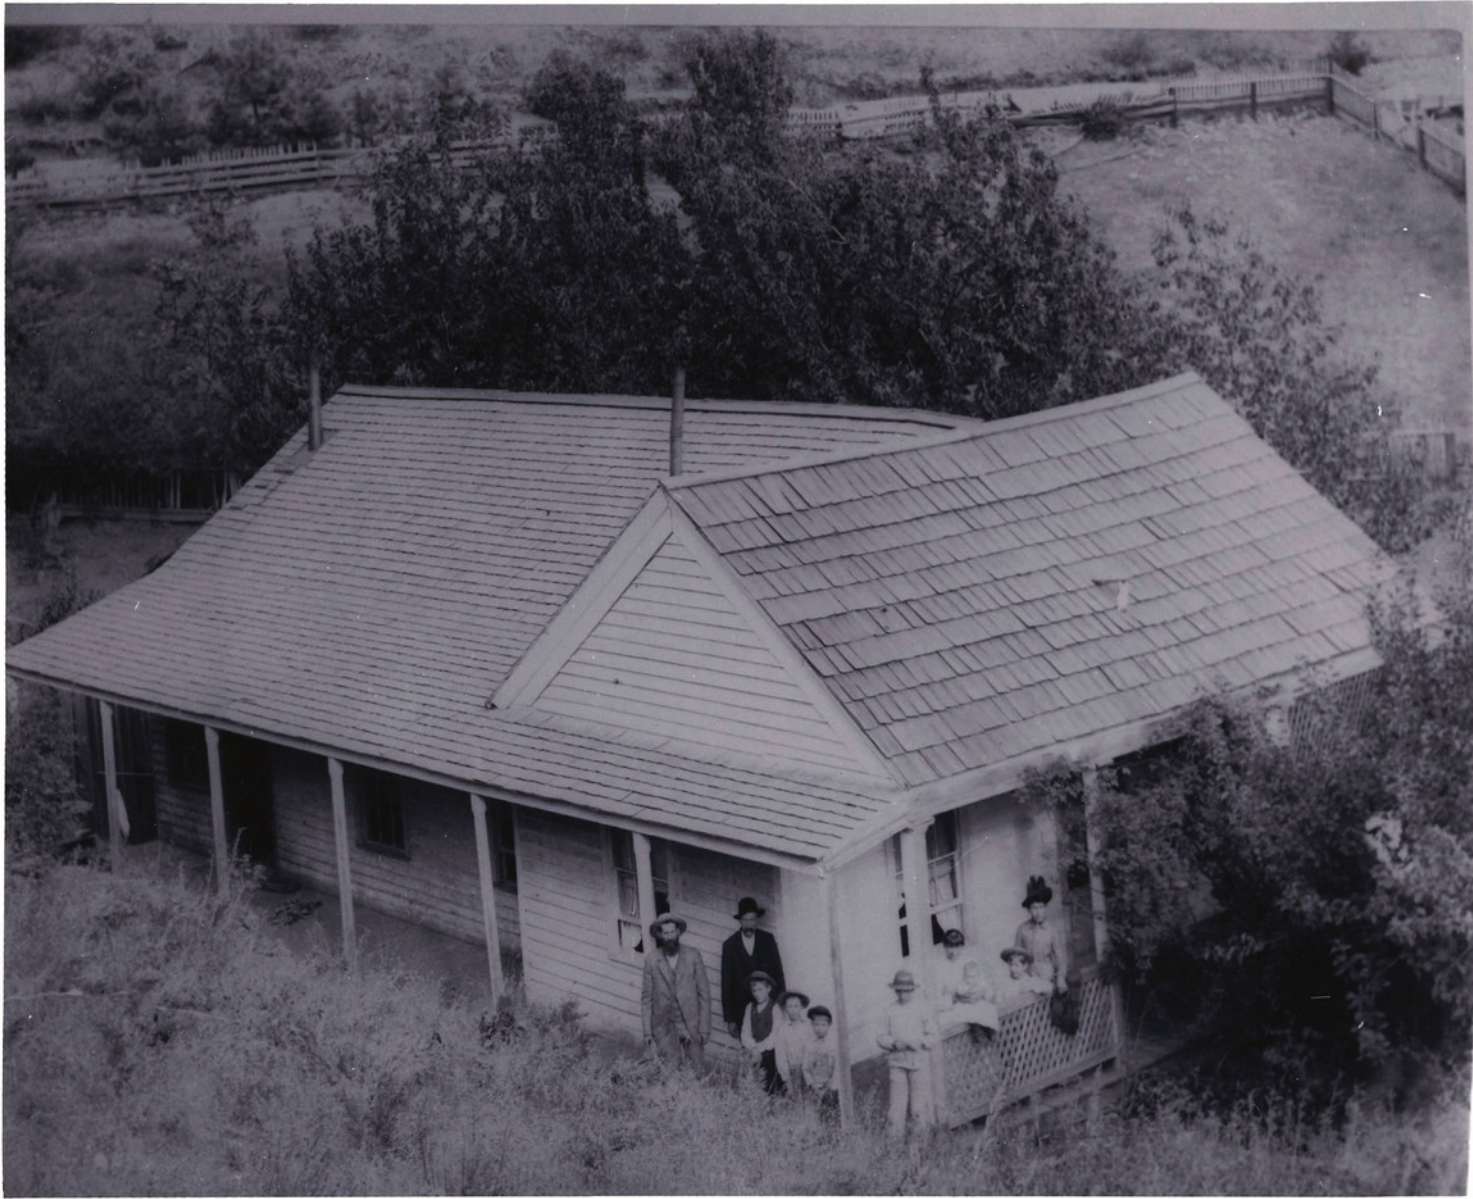

School at Bath, Placer
County, in early 1900<sup>s</sup>

All
Blue

Forest House, Forest Hill
Placer County

C9
Blue

Bath - also referred to "Down Under the Hill". First home of Frank & Minnie Locher before settling in Auburn.

L to R

Frank Locher, Wm Mitchell, Minnie's
brother; Albert (born here) Edwards, Cassie
Locher, next 4 children unknown &
Minnie Mitchell-Locher

Ford's Blacksmith Shop. Forest Hill, Cal.

D3
Blue

Ford's Blacksmith Shop
Forest Hill, CA

The "Jersey" (X) and "Jenny Lind" (XX) Mines, Forest Hill, Placer County, California

B10
Blue

Versy Mine x and Jenny Lind mine x

"Down under the Hill"

to the South east of Foresthill toward the Middle Fork of the American River. Picture taken from "Cod Fish Point" by Jacobs and Krouse. J. M.
Jacobs was the grandfather of
Jim and Bob Jacobs of Auburn

RESERVOIR FOREST HILL DIVIDE CAL.

D1
Blue

Morning Star Reservoir
later on Big Reservoir